ANNIVERSARIES

40 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Best

Rick and Cathy Best celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Dec. 30, 2009.

Rick is a graduate of SKHS and Cathy from Mount Vernon. They met while attending Seattle Pacific University.

Rick founded and operated Best Burgers, and was then associate pastor at First Christian Church for a number of years. He now is co-founder and executive director of two nonprofit ministries, OneChurch — One Family (a ministry to homeless families) and CHAMPS (a local mentoring ministry).

Cathy operates her own bookkeeping business (Best Services) and spends time as a homemaker and with grandchildren.

Together they lead a "Home Church" each week in their home in Olalla, where Rick grew up. They love spending time with their two married children and six grandchildren.

50 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Salsbery

Vern and Alice Salsbery are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on 2/27/2010.

Your family would like to thank you for teaching us a marriage is not only made of love, but commitment, friendship, respect, hard work and a sense of humor.

HAVE SOMETHING TO CELEBRATE?

The Kitsap Sun publishes free Celebrations announcements as follows: engagements at least one month before the wedding; weddings within six months after the wedding; and 25-year anniversaries and every five years thereafter within six months of the anniversary.

All announcements should be submitted using our online forms, available at www.kitsapsun.com/forms/.

Free announcements are limited in length; engagements and anniversaries may be up to about 90 words (500 characters) and weddings about 175 words (1,000 characters). Color or black and white photos are acceptable and may be attached to the electronic forms. Photos submitted separately by e-mail should be in JPEG (.jpg) format. Those wanting to publish items that exceed the word limit must pay for the additional space required. The online form gives you this option and calculates the exact cost before the announcement is submitted.

30 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Green

Jerry and Linda are full time RVers, spending 6 months in Yuma, AZ and 6 months in Port Orchard. They will celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary in August with family.

ENGAGEMENTS

Urseth, Maria

Karl Urseth and Michael Maria, both of Bremerton, WA, formally announce their 23-year engagement to marry.

Mr. Urseth is the son of the late Loren Urseth and Eloba Henry of Portland, Ore.

Mr. Maria is the son of Donald and Joyce Maria of Mount Shasta, CA, and Charles and Babe Huber of Elk Grove, CA.

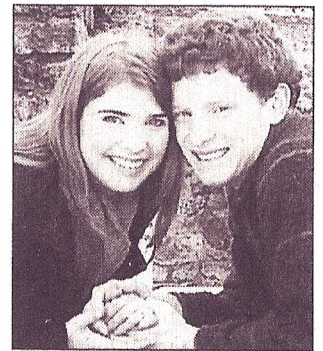

The couple plans to marry as soon as marriage equality is extended to all citizens of the state of Washington.

Ryan, Lange

Kyle Ryan and Elizabeth Lange joyfully announce their engagement to be married on May 23.

Kyle, the son of Mike and Mardell Ryan, grew up in Seabeck and graduated from WSU in computer science. He now works at Microsoft.

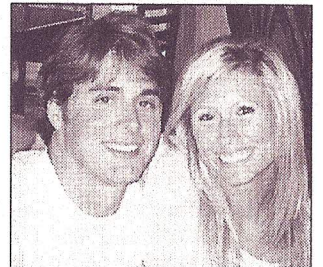

Elizabeth, a WSU graduate in fashion design, works at Village Theatre in Issaquah. She lives with her parents, Mike and Monica Lange, in North Bend.

Having become close friends at college, Kyle and Elizabeth attribute their love for each other to God's love for them.

Gillum, Greene

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Greene of Bainbridge Island are pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth R. Greene, to Kyle A. Gillum, son of Mr. and Mrs.
