

{ -->}

11 INCIDENTAL PROPERTY DAMAGE: (DESCRIPTION & VALUE)

{ -->}

12 VEHICLE IMPOUNDED? [N] (Y/N)

13 INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:

{On 5-2-12, at 0036 hrs, I, Officer Anderson, and my partner, Officer Chan, received a radio call of property damage at 85 Dayton Av N. Upon arrival, we were met by Victim and Victim.

stated that at approximately 0035 hrs, she was startled by glass breaking from the west side of her house. She looked and noticed that a window on the west side of her house was broken with glass on the interior floor below it. She also noticed that a rock was laying on the ground inside the house next to the broken glass.

looked out the window and noticed (2) individuals standing on the street in front of her house. Suspect #1 was looking at her and waved. The other individual was standing near suspect #1 but she was unable to describe that suspect. They both walked away southbound on Dayton Av N.

noticed that another window on the west side of the house was broken.

Only the outer pane of the double pane window was broken. Officer Chan I and looked near the exterior of the windows and noticed that a rock was on the lawn under the first window and another rock was on the lawn under the second window. Those (2) rocks and the rock found in the house were recovered and placed into Evidence. Officer Chan took several digital photos of the scene and sent them to SPD Photo Lab.

K9 Officer Wong searched the area for the suspects but was unsuccessful. Officers searched the area for any additional evidence but their efforts were met with negative results. A neighbor had surveillance cameras but they were not working at the time.

Sgt Harris and Lt. Allen responded to the scene.

--> SUSPECT 1 IS A W/M 40 YOA.

TEXT DOCUMENT:

Text Type: [REPORT SNAPSHOT]

Author: ANDERSON, CHRIS J.

Related date: 05-02-2012 Time: 0248

Role

Role #:

Subject: REPORT SNAPSHOT

TEXT:

Textual representation of the officer's MRE report