CERTIFICATION FOR DETERMINATION OF PROBABLE CAUSE

GENERAL OFFENSE # 12-133578
UNIT FILE NUMBER H12-

That David W. Duty is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case Number 12-133578;

There is probable cause to believe that CAMPICHE, PAUL WEAVER (W-M-11/24/78) committed the crime(s) of ASSAULT within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

On, 5/1/12, at approximately 1712 hours, Officer Zwaschka was working in uniform, monitoring the May Day protest in downtown Seattle. There were many protestors that had already committed large scale property damage to downtown businesses, some with sticks that they were allegedly using to display signs, but were actually used to break windows. There had been several verbal and physical assaults on officers trying to control the crowd and while trying to confiscate inappropriate signs/ weapons. Officer Zwaschka was providing crowd control for other officers that just taken away a sign post with metal attachments from a demonstrator and were involved in a disturbance regarding that incident. Officers were monitoring the crowd and trying to provide a safe perimeter around the arresting officers and a safe access to remove the prisoner, when protestors began to throw objects at this particular group of officers. Officer Zwaschka states that he saw an individual, later identified as Campiche, standing above the general crowd, possibly on a fire hydrant or paperbox about 15-20 feet away. Zwaschka said that he saw Campiche raise his right hand and throw a glass jar at him, "with great force like a pitcher would throw a fastball!" The glass fortunately bounced off the front of Zwaschka's SPD issued helmet and shattered when it hit the ground. Zwaschka and Officer Settle saw Campiche turn and run away and they pursued him. They caught Campiche a short distance away in the 100 blk of Pike St and Campiche dropped to the ground and covered up his arms and hands. He refused to comply with officers orders to show them his hands and they had to physically pull his arms out to handcuff him. Campiche refused to walk to the awaiting transport vehicle so officers had to carry him. While Sgt Yoon was holding one of Campiche's legs to keep from dragging him, Campiche violently kicked out both of his legs, striking Sgt. Yoon in his upper leg near the groin area, which according to Sgt. Yoon, caused severe pain. Finally four officers were able to secure Campiche and he was placed in the transport vehicle and then eventually booked into KC Jail for Investigation of Assault, and for Investigation of Riot due to the fact he acted in concert with more than three other persons and used force against another person (two uniformed Seattle Police Officers) with a weapon - the jar /bottle.

On 5/1/12, at approximately 1500 hours, I viewed video provided by Channel 7 news to our department. The video showed the incident involving Officer Zwaschka being struck by the bottle thrown by Campiche. The jar was thrown on a line and bounces off the front of his helmet, which he was wearing with the face-shield up. You can see the jar bounce off and hear it shatter on the ground over the crowd noise. A couple of inches lower and it would have struck Officer Zwaschka flush in the face; severely injuring or blinding him. I subsequently checked Campiche's criminal history and found that he had seven (7) felony convictions, apparently from a drug arrest in 2010.

That Steve Owings is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case Number 2012-133578;

There is probable cause to believe that Robert Anthony Ditrani W/M 05-12-1988 committed the crime(s) of Investigation of Assault within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

On 05/01/12 at 1636 hours, Seattle Police Officers Bailey, Terry and Jones were all working in full police uniform and tasked with working the May Day 2012 Protest. The officers were monitoring the rowdy and violent crowd in the 100 block of Pike Street. Suspect Ditrani was in possession of a long wooden pole that had bolts screwed into the ends of it. These poles had already been used by many protesters to cause tons of damage to the downtown core of Seattle, and were used in assaults. Officer Bailey asked Suspect Ditrani for the pole he was carrying, and the pole was taken away from Ditrani. Ditrani began to walk away from the officers and then turned and spit on Officer Terry. Officer Jones and Officer Terry arrested Suspect Ditrani. Officer Jones read Suspect Ditrani his Miranda Rights and he stated he understood his rights. Sgt Yoon screened the arrest in person at the scene. Suspect Ditrani was later booked into the King County Jail for Investigation of Assault. I completed this statement of Probable Cause only as a member of the Prisoner Processing Team at the West Precinct based on statements provided by officers at the scene.

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct to best of my knowledge and belief. Signed and dated by me this 1st day of MAY, 2012, at Seattle, Washington.

There is probable cause to believe that GARLAND, JOSHUA ALEXANDER (W-M-4/30/84) committed the crime(s) of ASSAULT within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

On 5/1/12 there were several SPD officers assigned to the May Day Protest in downtown Seattle. During the course of the day, There were many protestors that had already committed large scale property damage to downtown businesses, some with sticks that had been allegedly used to display signs, but had actually been used to break windows or assault officers. There had been several reported assaults on officers as well.

At approximately 1640 hours, Officer Steve Smith #6829, was monitoring the crowd near 1st and Pike while other officers were attempting to arrest another individual. Several of the hostile protestors began to encircle the arrest team and were shouting "Let him go!" and closing in on the arresting officers, posing a potential hazard to their safety. Officer Smith moved in to protect the officers engaged with the suspect and ordered one of the protestors to step back. He was later identified as Garland and was wearing a hoodie tightly around his face with a gasmask. Garland had tried to push past Officer Smith, and when he was ordered back, he refused to do so although he had room and he kept trying to get by Officer Smith to the prisoner. Officer Smith put his left hand on Garland's chest and tried to turn him away from the officers trying to handcuff and deal with their suspect, but Garland grabbed Officer Smith's left hand with both hands and twisted and squeezed, causing Officer Smith pain and concern. Smith said he thought that Garland was trying to pull him into the crowd so he was more vulnerable to an assault from the crowd and to created access for others to get to the prisoner. Fortunately other officers saw Garland grab Smith and came to his aid. Garland was arrested and booked into KC Jail for Investigation of Assault.

There is probable cause to believe that Maria Jannett Morales W/F/01-10-1982 committed the crime(s) of Assault within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

On May 1st, 2012 at about 1748 Hours Officer Fry was working in full Seattle Police Bicycle uniform monitoring the May Day protests in Downtown Seattle. There were many protestors that had already committed large scale property damage to downtown businesses, some with sticks that they were allegedly using to display signs, but were actually used to break windows. There had been several verbal and physical assaults on officers trying to control the crowd and while trying to confiscate inappropriate signs/ weapons. Officer Fry assigned to form a line for a team of officers who were moving an arrested subject out of the area. There was a line of news media documenting the event, they were moving back, as asked by officers, when the Suspect, later identified as Maria Jannett Morales W/F/01-10-1982 stepped up to the line of officers and started yelling. Morales got right up to Officer Fry and said, "Okay bitch." then punched officer Fry in the chest with a closed fist. Officer Fry grabbed Morales with the intent of placing her under arrest. Officer Gallegos was stepping around Morales to assist when Morales, still struggling to get free from Officer Fry, kicked at Officer Gallegos striking him on the leg. Morales was placed into handcuffs and eventually booked into King County Jail.

6 PROSECUTING ATTORNEY CASE SUMMARY AND REQUEST FOR BAIL AND/OR 7 CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

8 The Certifications for Determination of Probable Cause prepared by Steve Owings, Jeff 9 Mudd, and David Duty of the Seattle Police Department for incident number 12-133578 are 10 incorporated by reference.

11 REQUEST FOR BAIL

12 Defendant Campiche: The State requests that bail remain set for this defendant in the amount of 13 $75,000. According to the police reports this defendant threw a glass bottle or jar at the head of 14 a Seattle Police Officer who was providing crowd control cover for another officer making an 15 arrest. He then attempted to flee the scene but was apprehended by other officers. While being 16 taken into custody he kicked another officer in the leg near his groin. This defendant has seven
17 prior convictions for Violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, including Delivery
18 and Possession with Intent to Deliver and Maintaining a building for Drug Purposes in 2009.

19 Defendant Ditrani: The State requests that bail remain set in the amount of $10,000. This 20 defendant was recently found guilty of Malicious Mischief and Criminal Trespass Under King
21 County Superior Court Cause number 12-1-0017-1 and according to the King County Jail was 22 just released from custody in April. According to police reports he was armed with a long
23 wooden pole with bolts or screws in the end. After an officer disarmed him, he spat on a police 24 officer.

Defendant Garland: At first appearance, this defendant was released on his personal recognizance. The State requests that a summons be issued for the defendant to appear for future court proceedings in this matter. He has no known criminal history. According to the police reports he assaulted an officer who was providing cover for other officers taking another individual into custody.

Defendant Morales: At first appearance, this defendant was released on her personal recognizance. The State requests that a summons be issued for her to appear for future court proceedings. This defendant has no known criminal history. According to police reports, she punched an officer in the chest who was working crowd control during the May Day protests.

The State further requests that as a condition of any release that the defendants in this case be ordered not to possess any weapons.

Signed this 4th day of May, 2012.
