Local Indivisible groups organize their own Town Hall during Senate recess to address contentious Trump agenda—Sens. Murray and Cantwell invited to attend

SEATTLE, WA — While the U.S. Senate is in recess this week, a coalition of grassroots Indivisible groups have joined forces to organize a citizens' Town Hall meeting. Seattle Indivisible and the other sponsoring Indivisible groups are part of a grassroots movement sweeping the nation, dedicated to using citizen advocacy to resist the regressive Trump agenda.

- WHAT: Town Hall, hosted by a coalition of local Indivisible groups
- WHERE: Blaine Memorial United Methodist Church, 3001 24th AVE S., Seattle, WA 98144
- WHEN: Saturday, Feb. 25, 2017, 6:30-8:30PM
- RSVP HERE: <https://www.facebook.com/events/1011407905627770/>
- TOPICS:
1. Healthcare/Affordable Care Act
  2. Muslim immigrant/refugee ban
  3. U.S. Supreme Court nominee Neil M. Gorsuch
  4. Conflicts of Interest and President Trump's Tax Returns
  5. Need for independent investigation into Russia-Trump ties
  6. Whatever is on your mind—this is a citizens' Town Hall

Voters at home are alarmed by the damage done by the Trump administration in just 30 days. While Congress is in recess, we, the citizens, want to meet to discuss what our Senators are and should be doing to resist this march backwards. We will learn from informed speakers sharing their personal experiences, followed by moderated community/citizen discussion and input. Senators Murray and Cantwell have been invited but have not yet confirmed attendance.

What better place to meet to discuss the character of our nation, and the danger of citizen silence, than Blaine Memorial United Methodist Church? Formerly called the Seattle Japanese Methodist Episcopal Church, this congregation still has deep roots and memories of another executive order, signed 75 years ago, ordering the internment of Japanese Americans. See http://www.seattletimes.com/seattle-news/japanese-american-internment-75-years-ago/?utm\_source=facebook&utm\_medium=social&utm\_campaign=article\_left\_1.1

Please join us, the Indivisible citizens of Washington, in a discussion about the character of our nation.
